

Anti-Bribery and Corruption Statement

China Construction Bank Corporation Singapore Branch (“CCBSG”) is committed to conducting its business activities in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations (including but not limited to the Singapore Prevention of Corruption Act 1960, as well as other applicable laws that prohibit bribery and corruption).

CCBSG’s anti-bribery and corruption practices and policies have been implemented in accordance with all applicable laws and regulation.

This prohibition against bribery and corruption is a cornerstone of CCBSG’s commitment to conducting business in an ethical manner. In support of its commitment to conducting business with integrity, CCBSG adopts a zero tolerance approach towards bribery and corruption and expects all its staff (whether full-time, part-time, on contract or temporary basis) to abide by the anti-bribery and anti-corruption practices and standards that CCBSG has put in place. CCBSG’s business partners (such as consultants, advisors, contractors, agents, sponsors, suppliers, vendors, customers, any third party and any other person associated (directly or indirectly)) must comply with the anti-bribery and anti-corruption practices and standards that CCBSG has put in place as well as the applicable laws that prohibit bribery and corruption.

All employees are responsible for their own compliance and must ensure that they adhere to CCBSG’s anti-bribery and corruption practices and policy in order to protect CCBSG’s reputation.

Staff or business partners of CCBSG who genuinely suspect or become aware of the existence of any wrongdoing, corruption, fraud, bribery or corruption conduct within CCBSG may report such matters to the Chief Anti-Bribery and Corruption Officer CCBSG via the following channels:-
